Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .Realizing the importance of post graduate work he has taken special courses in chemistry from time to time to keep in touch with new developments and changes. Immediately upon completion of his college work he entered the employ of McKesson Robbins of New York as assistant to the chief chemist. Here the foundation of Dr. Brewer s practical experience was really laid. It was during his connection with this house that he became interested in sanitation and a higher standard of purity for food and drugs. With the purpose of broadening his experience along these lines he took a Civil Service examination and was appointed chief chemist in the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, of the City of New York. After several months experience in the analysis of water, coal, lubricating oils and various other operations attendant upon the sanitary supervision and maintenance of the water supply of the City of New York, he secured an appointment in the Laboratory of Hygiene (Board of Health Laboratory) of the State of New Jersey. Here he was placed in charge of the food and drug inspection laboratory, where specimens collected from drug stores, groceries and dairies are examined. Dr. Brewer states that the experience gained here has been of incalculable value to him since, in interpreting the various problems that have presented themselves in connection with the Food and Drugs Act. An offer of a larger salary after this induced Dr. Brewer to connect himself with Osborn-Colwell...
