Excerpt: . . . ll. until the close of the autumn. He reached Galveston on the 14th of February, and at once commenced his work, which was brought to a close by the advance of summer, on the 22d of July. The party has had the use of a schooner belonging to the coast survey, sailed by Mr. Andrew J. Hussey, of Alexandria, who has given entire satisfaction in the execution of the contract for sailing the vessel and providing for the crew. Since the close of the season, Mr. Fauntleroy has been engaged in recomputing observations of previous years, which his constant employment in the field had hitherto prevented. In this he has been aided by Mr. Davidson. The party is under instructions to resume the triangulation in section IX. as early as practicable. OFFICE WORK. . 1 0 The organization of the office has continued during the past...
