Large window, L., sofa R., table L., C. doors R. U. E. and L. 2 E. Enter, Mrs. Honeyton. There, Ferdinand s not down yet! How late he is. I ve had some breakfast, for I was so hungry I could wait no longer written two letters, been twice round the garden, and gathered these roses on purpose for him. (takes some thread from a work-box and begins to tie them together) There was a time, five months ago, when he used to give me bouquets and not I him. That was before we were married, of course. There seems to be some dreadful principle in human nature, some horrid law, that the man must pay the attentions before marriage and the woman afterwards; and the men have the best of the bargain, too, for I am sure in my most coquettish moods I never received Ferdinand...
