That thou givest them they gather. Thou openoat hand; they are filled with good. thine 104th Psalm. The traveller from the Old World to the New is apt to lose himself in reflection when he should be observing. Speculations come in crowds in the wilderness. He finds himself philosophizing with every step he takes, as luxuriously as by his study fireside, or in his rare solitary walk at home. In England, everything comes complete and finished under notice. Each man may be aware of some one process of formation, which it is hia business to conduct; but all else is presented to him in its entireness. The statesman knows what it is to compose an act of parliament; to proceed from the first perception of the want of it, through the gathering together of facts and opinions, the selection from...
