I have known many happy Hours since that Day, Mistress, and many Hours full of Sorrow, but none so full of pulsating Life as those which outwardly had seemed so miserable. And then that wonderful afternoon when Mr. Theophilus Baggs and his Spouse being safely out of the way, we stole out together and spent a few hours at the Play! Do you remember the day on which we ventured on the Escapade Mr. Baggs and Mistress Euphrosine had gone to Hampton Court: he to see a noble Client and she to accompany him. The day being fine and the Client being a Lady possessed of well-known charms, Mistress Euphrosine would not have trusted her Lord alone in the company of such a forward Minx at least, those were her Words, which she uttered in my hearing two Days before the memorable Expedition. Memorable, indeed, it was to me! Mr. Baggs left a sheaf of Documents for me to copy, which would he thought keep me occupied during the whole course of a long Day. You too, fair Mistress, were to...
