Lem was fond of shooting, could shoot well, and was rather proud of it. It happened, on a bright October day, that he had been hunting the cover on the Newtown side of the pond, and came out by the old barn where Bob Emmons was at work. After a little talk, he left his gun and fixings standing outside, and went into the barn to look at the cattle, and finally passed through to the cidermill, just beyond; for half a day s tramp in the wood makes a man dry, you d better believe. While he was gone, Bob, who wus always at the bottom of all the deviltry done in the vicinity, dropped an extra charge of shot into each barrel of the gun, and stood by waiting for fun. Presently Amasa came up the road with a...
