A few of our girls were food demonstration agents and several more were assistant agents. Still others did volunteer stenographic work for the county food administrators. Perhaps the greatest amount of patriotic work was done by one of last years Freshmen, who, assisted by her mother and two sisters, took charge of a large farm and did all the work from preparing the ground to reaping and disposing of the crop. In food conservation, this family went almost to the limit; they used scarcely any wheat, meat, sugar, or butter; preserved and dried quantities of fruit, and bought War Saving Stamps with the returns from the sale of the fruit. All of these girls, who, before the war, would never have dreamed of accomplishing such things, are now enthusiastically and efficiently serving their country in her hour of need. Dear little hut By the rice fields circled, Coconut palms above. I hear the voices of Children singing - That means love, means love. If our best-selves would permit us to paraphrase so lovely a little song, we might, through the simple process of supplanting, create another one, a local song whose appeal to Normal hearts would set the least songful of them a-singing. Our campus encircles it, oak trees and pines wave above it, college girls, nailing it, painting it, building it, sing in and out and round about it - our Dear little hut. Because of the happiest of happy ideas of the college Y. W....
