Am I responsible for his future success as a reader, by having failed to discover his peculiar condition and needs? Or does the fault lie in his memory or in his eyes? Some people are called color blind because they cannot distinguish difference between colors. May not something of the same kind apply in the matter of reading? The child sees words, knows they are words, but cannot tell the difference between them. Why is it that some persons excel in writing or drawing, others in mathematics or music, and others in reading? Is it not because all have not the same gifts? Now, I am not seeking to find a mantle large enough to cover my failures as a teacher, neither do I wish to shirk any responsibility that ought to rest upon me, for I feel a conscientious desire to...
