I had a thousand times had the thought of inquiring why you did not teach me 47 what I so often saw the two Fathers do who are in my cabin, who pray to God so long without moving their lips: I restrained myself, believing that if you had judged me capable, you would have taught me, and consequently that I must wait to be found worthy thereof. After that, the time was taken for this purpose; but extraordinary occupations coming upon him, one after the other, the matter dragged along. This good man perceived as much, and plainly suspecting, of his own accord, that there might be some ruse of the devil therein, he left in God s hands the care of his family, and in fact came to find us when we were least expecting him. Perhaps one will be glad...
