Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Relation or Rather a True Account of the Island of England The MS. from which this is translated was formerly in the library of the Abbate Canonici at Venice, and is now in the possession of the Rev. Walter Sneyd. Neither the name of the writer of this history, nor that of the person to whom it was addressed, is known. It appears, however, to be the work of some noble Venetian, who accompanied an ambassador from Venice to the court of England, and who was employed by him to write the report usually made to the Senate by every ambassador on his return from his mission, of the country to which he had been sent. In the annexed list of Venetian ambassadors and their Relations of this country, for which I am indebted to the researches of John Holmes, Esquire, F.S.A. of the British Museum, through whose kindness so valuable an addition is given to this little volume, it appears that Francesco Capello was the earliest Venetian ambassador, on record, to England.
