This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Research Paper from the year 2007 in the subject Politics - International Politics - Topic: Globalization, Political Economics, grade: 80%, University of Birmingham, course: International political economy, 34 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: Some intellectuals, academics and financial leaders think that a global economy needs a global currency. They have proposed the abandonment exchange rates to advance the idea of a Global Monetary Union and ultimately a Single Global Currency. They argue that this would boost world prosperity, by eliminating transaction costs, currency risks, currency misalignments, and currency crises. (Bonpasse, 2006, p. 268) Opponents argue against monetary union and fixed exchange rates and favour flexible exchange rates, which they perceive as effective absorbers of asymmetric shocks in the economy. In this paper, I devote analysis to testing the analytical consistency and robustness of the utopian idea of a GMU, in terms of its desirability, utility and feasibility, thereby focusing on the political economy thus desirability of the issue. Having set the scene with a historical discussion of monetary orders as counterparts to the particular world...
