

One Sheaf, One Vine Racially Conscious White Americans Talk About Race

By Robert Griffin

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 172 pages. Dimensions: 8.7in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. ONE SHEAF, ONE VINE RACIALLY CONSCIOUS WHITE AMERICANS TALK ABOUT RACE This book is made up of the personal statements about race from seventeen white Americans. What they share is that, for them, the fact that they are white is more than an incidental, insignificant, or peripheral aspect of their being; it is central to how they view themselves and conduct their lives. The men and women you will meet in this book arent public figures or leaders of organizations. They are everyday people: a postal worker from Philadelphia, a college student from Texas, an attorney from New York City, a bookstore owner from Washington State, an appliance repair man from Connecticut, a teacher from Chicago, and so on. We have a very negative image of racially conscious and committed whites gained largely from the media: neo-Nazi bigots, menacing skin heads, thugs who commit hate crimes. We are informed about people of this sort, but we dont hear from them. They arent on television news shows speaking for themselves. They dont make movies or publish books. Politicians dont articulate their perspective or advocate their positions. Journalists and...
