Xulon Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Remembrances From The Heart is a beautifully illustrated and spiritually driven compilation of heartfelt eulogies and poems. These works honor the deceased, as well as comfort the living. The Author captures in words those unspoken emotions that are expressed at times of loss and grief. Recommended for Funerals, Memorials, Honorable Dedications and more, this book is also useful for educators, ministers, motivational speakers, and simply for the pleasure of reading a book that brings praise and glory to God! The reader can find a connection to their loved ones by choosing a passage from this treasured book. The messages are timeless. Vicki Valeen Johnson, is a 4th generation born and raised Texan. She was raised by her Grandmother, noted Texas Poet, Ruth Christine Johnson. At a very early age, Vicki would sit on a pallet of blankets under shade trees and rhyme words together with her grandmother, and they would create poems from the heart. Vicki was brought up in Church, and was taught the true essence of how to love. Her upbringing and household either encompassed the arts or medicine. Vicki s grandmother was not only an acclaimed poet, but she nursed the sick, mentally ill and dying; sometimes in their own home. The nursing was on a spiritual level, as well as a physical need. That would attribute to the profession Vicki has also spent many years serving as a Licensed Paramedic. From the art s perspective, Vicki learned or was gifted with a variety of writing and creative talents, which has granted her the title of Entertainment Industry s Senior Publicist, Professional Writer, Published Songwriter and Poet. Some of her industry credits can be...
