Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Records of Some of the Descendants of William Curtis, Roxbury In the Ship Lyon which arrived in Boston, Sunday, September 16, 1632, came William Curtis, with his wife and four children. In the same ship came William Heath and Daniel Brewer, and all three settled in Roxbury, William Curtis on Stony river. In the earliest Records of Roxbury was a list of Ye states of the Inhabitants of Rocksbery. There is no date to this list, but it was between 1634 and 1643. In it are the names of the families of William Curteis with thirteen persons in his family; forty acres of land, estate eight - probably pounds sterling. Also John Corteis, with five persons in family. William Curtis appears to be the largest landholder in this list, which contains fifty-three names; but there is another list of about a dozen larger landholders, among whom are Dudley, Weld, Gore and Heath. Curtis is spelled in various ways in the old records, as was the case with most other names. In one of Shakespere s plays it is spelled Curtis, which is good authority. Roxbury was settled by a party under the direction of William Pynchon, from the company who came with Winthrop, in 1630. They were mostly from London and its vicinity, and a few from the West of England. It is supposed by some that William Curtis came from London, by others from Warwickshire. The birth of his youngest son, Isaac, is in the Town Records, 1642, ten years after their arrival. It is not known whether Mary was married. The marriages of his daughters Elizabeth and Hannah are on record, but not...
