The experiments were carried out at the instance and under the guidance of Dr. Jung. The work which Drs. Jung and Riklin published in 1904 gave an entirely new direction to association experiments. The principle of mental association is, of course, of reputable antiquity: Do you not know, then, that lovers when they see a lyre, or a garment, or anything else which their favourite is accustomed to use, are thus affected; they both recognize the lyre and receive in their minds the form of the person to whom the lyre belonged. Its experimental phase begins with Galton s work in 1879 and Wundt s in 1880. The new departure which we owe...
